A Man in Corbin Claims to Knew of Wm. Goebel's Murder.

He Asserts That the Man Who Killed the Senator Was a Citizen of Corbin and is Now in Hiding.

Louisville, Ky., March 21.-The stories growing out of the conference between Sergt. F. Wharton Golden, of the Barbourville company of state militia, and the attorneys who are managing the investigation of the assassination of Wm. Goebel have caused a sensation throughout the state. Golden will be placed on the stand by the prosecution in the trial of the prisoners already arrested for alleged complicity in the assassination, but information as to the exact nature of from 18,000 to 20,000 men. the testimony he is expected to give is lacking.

The story is published that Golden has divulged to the attorneys the name of the man who fired the shots that killed Goebel. The person named is a mulatto who formerly lived at Winchester, was prominent in the 144 days after his own arrival at French-Eversole feud and is known as a dead shot. This man is now supposed to be in the wilds of one of the mountain counties.

Lexington, Ky., March 21.-Sergt. F. Wharton Golden, the man alleged driven back, and the "defender of to have made incriminating statements in the Goebel murder, arrived of war. here in company with his attorney, Smith Hayes, shortly after 7 o'clock. movements have been kept in the dark.

Corbin, Ky., March 22.-Startling disclosure was made kere Wednesday morning. Just three days before Senator Goebel was assassinated a conference was held in Barboursville, at which was present two republican state officials, one ex-state official, and one or two others. One of these present who desired his name withheld for the present, informed the Associated Press correspondent of the affair giving the names of those preswas absolutely false that Tallow Dick Combs fired the shot that killed Goebel, saying that the man who killed him was a citizen of this town, and the same man is now in hiding from a warrant which is sworn out for him. If, he said, if they are looking to Tallow Dick Combs as the guilty the conference at which he was presgathered from what he said that such an understanding had been reached.

Frankfort, Ky., March 22.-County Prosecutor Polsgrove went to Lex- board in this city. ington Wednesday, where he is to eet Sergt, F. W. Golden, the Barbourville militiamen, who is said to be the most important witness in the state in the trials of the suspects held in connection with the Goebel assass ination. Ex-Congressman David G. Colston, who is reputed to have urged other suspects to confess and also to have rendered valuable aid to the detectives is obeying the advice of have them cleansed. Three deaths his lawyer and refused to talk.

Middlesboro, Ky., March 22.-Dee Armstrong, the Louisville detective, and two others, are here, it is said, for the purpose of arresting other republicans, but if the attempt is made they will have a happy time. The people here say that Golden is a man unworthy of belief; that his alleged confession is without one syllable of truth, and that he expects a large sum of money for his story.

Frankfort, Ky., March 22.-The stories from democratic sources that the confessions of Berry Howard, of Harlan county, and F. W. Golden, of Knox county, were brought forth by Col. David G. Colson, who is the warm friend of both, is strenuously denied by the republican friends here of Colson. The ex-congressman himself refuses to say a word about the Goebel case or to even admit that he has talked with Howard as stated.

OSMAN PASHA DEAD.

The Hero of Plevna Passed Aray at the Age of 68 Years in Constantinople.

greatest Turkish soldier of recent times, is dead. He was 68 years old. His defense of Plevna against an overwhelming Russian force in 1876 gave Osman enormous prestige. By the intrenchments he caused to be thrown up he arrested for four months the advance of the Russians. In three pitched battles he overcame the finest troops of the czar's armies. On July 1, 1876, he inflicted a loss of 3,000 killed and wounded on his assailants. The next battle cost the Russians 170 officers and 7,136 men, and the three days' stubborn assault of Skobeloff later on, when the Russian grenadiers got within five hundred yards of the trenches, but failed to pass the fatal fire zone, ended in a Russian loss of

It was resolved to starve out the army of Osman, which originally numbered about 56,000 men, and an army of 120,000 Russians completed the investment.

At length, forty-five days after the close siege had been established, and Plevena, Osman determined on a desperate attempt to cut his way through. The struggle was of the fiercest sort, but many hours' bayonet fighting ended in the Turks being Plevena" surrendered with the honors

When the sultan heard of the death of the famous general, he exclaimed, They came from Winchester. Their "Allah is unmerciful. He has deprived me of my honest, true friend and most valiant supporter."
